About the seminar:

We are proud to announce a Special Topics Seminar by Mr. Nick Allen, VP of Shell for Downstream Management Consultancy and CO<sub>2</sub>.

Nick will give a short presentation on his work at Shell and with its customers on Shell's low carbon and energy efficiency solutions.

About the Speaker:

Nick Allen, Vice President - Downstream Management Consultancy and CO<sub>2</sub>

As Vice President - Downstream Management Consultancy & CO<sub>2</sub>, Nick is responsible for developing Shell's low carbon and energy efficiency customer solutions and for overseeing all of Shell's Downstream internal and external low carbon initiatives. Nick also leads Shell's Downstream Management Consultancy business, and retains strategic relationships with a number of key vehicle manufacturers. Prior to this, Nick, spent four years as Shell's Global Head of Retail Fuels Marketing.

Nick started in Shell in 1998, first based in London, where he led the development and launch of differentiated premium fuels in Asia. He then spent six years working in various regional Retail roles in Asia, initially based in Bangkok and then Singapore.

Nick started his career in Procter & Gamble's Health and Beauty care business. Nick holds a Business and marketing degree and lives in Clapham, South London. His passions include his family, photography, live music and Leeds United football club.
